Copenhagen, September 15. N. S.

THE Danish Ministers received Yesterday certain Advice from Jutland, that the King and Queen, with the whole Court, happily landed on the 10th at Flastrand. The Master of a Vessel lately come in here from Konigsberg, has reported to the Grand Chamberlain, that before his Departure from that Place, King Staniſlaus was arrived in Poland, and proclaimed King.

Copenhagen, Sept. 19, N. S. We have just received Advice from Elsenore, that nine French Men of War, under the Command of a Vice Admiral, and which sailed from Breſt the 1st Instant, arrived in the Sound on the 15th, about Seven a-Clock in the Evening; that three Men of War and a Frigate belonging to that Squadron were then behind, having been separated from the others by bad Weather; that the said Squadron saluted the Castle of Cronenburg with Eleven Guns; which Compliment the Governour returned with the like Number.

Hague, Sept. 25, N. S. The Letters from Warsaw of the 14th Instant are just arrived; they mention nothing else but the Election of King Staniſlaus. The Government of Heulden was this Day conferred by the States General on the Count de Bentheim, a Major General in the Army.

Hampton-Court, September 18.

This Day M. Bunau, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Saxony, had a private Audience of Leave of His Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Leave of Her Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Hampton-Court, Sept. 20. This Day M. Bunau, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Saxony, had a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Duke.

And a private Audience of Leave of her Royal Highness the Princess Royal, and their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Amelia and Caroline.

And afterwards he had a private Audience of Leave of their Royal Highnesses the Princesses Mary and Louisa.

To all which he was introduced by the Master of the Ceremonies.
